

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GIA'S LATEST SINGLE "I THOUGHT YOU WERE MINE" INFUSES BLUES, JAZZ, AND CONTEMPORARY POP WITH NORAH JONES-ESQUE SENSUALITY

Contact: GIA LEVÉ - (805) 636-9369 music@gialeve.com

Santa Barbara, CA - May 3rd 2024 – Prepare to be enraptured by native New Zealander, GIA LEVÉ's latest single, "I Thought You Were Mine." With a seductive blend of blues, jazz, and contemporary pop, this song is set to captivate listeners worldwide.

Featuring Gia's velvety smooth vocals reminiscent of Norah Jones, "I Thought You Were Mine" explores the complexities of a love triangle with unparalleled depth and emotion. Co-written by the multi-platinum songwriter and producer, Paul Statham from UK and the talented Katie Thomas, this easy listening and sultry song was crafted in the serene hills of Malaga, Spain.

"I Thought You Were Mine" is not just a song; it's a journey through the tangled web of desire and betrayal. With its intoxicating melody and evocative lyrics, this track is bound to resonate with audiences of all ages.

Gia's ability to breathe life into the narrative, coupled with the expert songwriting of collaborators Statham and Thomas, ensures that "I Thought You Were Mine" will leave an indelible mark on the music scene.

Don't miss out on experiencing the magic of "I Thought You Were Mine."

For more information, please contact:

Visit GIA LEVÉ's website and follow her on Instagram and Facebook.

Website: gialeve.com

All platforms: <https://linktr.ee/gialevemusic>

IG: /gialevemusic FB: /gialevemusic YT: /gialevemusic Spotify: GIA LEVÉ

####